idea, you just didn't get it, sorry'. Is it possible people just aren't interested in paying exorbitant amounts to witness faux-political naive bollocks?

Please read what I said BEFORE I said that the school committee was to blame. Question: If you were given money that was not rightfully yours, wouldn't you question it? In my book, if money were to be given to me that I was not supposed to get and I didn't question it, it would be equivalent to stealing according to the values with which I was raised. The school committee should have given it back with questions as to the error.
that way.

Jolly Cholly Memories,

~~It saddens me to see the lack of news from the on-line trade down economics~~

version of my hometown newspaper. I guess the solution is pay-per-view? Pay for the service and receive all that our regular subscribers get? I guess the irony in that is that someone there no longer has the time to show the five or six daily headline stories in their entirety, but once you pay for it, heck, they'll even show you everything on sale at Emerald Square and throw in local movie times too. Sorry, this out-of-state resident with his heart back in the Sun Chronicle area sadly misses what is going on back home. But if money is what makes the world go around, then I wish the decision makers at The Sun Chronicle good luck on this latest gimmick. For those of you who won't be returning once they go pay-per-view, I sincerely hope that on your next visit back home to the Sun Chronicle area you will find the warmth and happiness you always remembered. You can't and shouldn't try to put a price on that. Happy New Year everyone. GO PATRIOTS!
